

ERC/MSCA information session and grant writing skills workshop

EUP will provide information on EU funding opportunities for individual scientists within the Marie Skodowska Curie Individual Fellowships and the European Research Council (ERC). EUP will provide tips and advice on how to apply.

In the afternoon, the information from the morning will be put into practice. There will be some practical exercises to get a better insight into the writing of EU applications.