Authorship
In order to become a Belle II author and/or to check your eligibility please refer to the page Belle II Authorship by Leo Piilonen.

You can get access to the Belle II authorship service author.s.belle2.org beyond your Belle II membership. On request to b2-helpdesk@belle2.org your account will be move to a group 'b2author' which allows to access the service.

2019-02-19 Belle II Indico
In order to make use of the new Belle II Indico Instructions make sure you log in to indico.belle2.org with your DESY credentials (Login with LDAP using your account name). You will then become part of the Indico Belle II group which allows you to view the agendas.

2018-05-28 Group Pages
We have created a top page Belle II Group Pages under which Belle II communities or groups may set up own pages.
Becoming a Belle II Member and Getting Access to the Belle II Collaborative Services and Tools

In order to make use of the Belle II collaborative services (B2CS), all users must register in the Belle II Membership Management System (B2MMS), incl. summer students. The request for membership includes requesting login credentials from DESY. The credentials (account_name / password) are good for all Belle II services and tools at DESY but are independent of a KEK account. Please refer to the Belle II Newcomers. Also see Belle II Registration Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) for trouble shooting.

Belle II maintains a set of Communication Tools. They are accessible with the DESY login credentials.

In order to gain access to the DESY analysis facility (NAF) consider Belle II Requesting Additional Resource Access (login).

Collaborative Services

We list here a selection of Belle II Collaborative Services (B2CS) and their URLs for easy access. Please do not ignore the documentation. All services require a login with the DESY credentials (account_name/password), not email address. Also note Belle II Support Contacts.

Note: Most of the Grid services run at KEK (DIRAC, VOMS (master)) or at BNL (FTS, RUCIO). Those services are independent!
