

ASAP::O Development

Roadmap

Welcoming note

Welcome to the development pages of the ASAP::O project. We keep here (in a quite informal way) the information important for the developer team. A separate namespace will be created for the users of the ASAP::O. So, if you are developer, read carefully everything and please try to follow the suggested workflow and coding conventions (your pull request will be rejected if you don't 😊).

If you are a power user or just want to learn more about the insides of the product, probably you should start with Design Documents. Anyway, any feedback is always welcome.

Development team
